M. MURDOCK &amp; BROTHER, Proprietors.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL ITEMS OF NEWS

Fur caps to the front.

Gas is being put into the store of Larimer &amp; Stinson.

Christmas goods are beginning to arrive at our stores.

The show windows of Miles &amp; Lippitt are handsomely dressed.

The paper was yesterday put up for the Simons Comedy company.

The Simons Comedy company played in old Eagle hall eight years ago.

The party given by Mrs. Stern night before last was a very enjoyable affair.

Taxes collected yesterday at the county treasurer's office amounted to $568.82.

Capt. W. N. Drew, the inspector for the interior department, was in the city yesterday.

Eighty boxes of crackers were sold to our city merchants, on yesterday, by the new cracker factory.

It seems rather early to begin selling overcoats at cost. Nevertheless some of our clothing men so advertise.

Mr. C. Eichholtz is a delegate in attendance upon the St. Louis gentlemen's convention in session this week.

The Water Works company have the contract for the plumbing on the Green &amp; Hay block, and also upon the Union block.

Mr. and Mrs. Winch are back from Europe Springs for the winter. Mr. Winch's general health was materially improved.

Four car loads of coal were sold by one of our city firms day before yesterday, and yesterday they were entirely sold out.

A marriage license was issued yesterday by Probate Judge Jewett to Francis Bland and Allie White. They were married by Justice Thomas.

The pay car came in on the Santa Fe yesterday and made the boys feel happy—some of them felt so happy they could scarcely stand up.

R. P. Murdock, of the Wichita Eagle, graced the Republican office with his presence yesterday. He returned to the boom city on the 4 p. m. train—Emporia Republican.

A grand social dance is to be given in the rink by the Wichita comet band next Thursday evening, which should be largely attended. Secure tickets from members of the band.

Mr. Joseph Landy, a man of wealth from Illinois, has purchased the James Beard farm near Sunnyside. He has gone home to arrange to move at once to Kansas, and will occupy his new farm above referred to, which is located near this city.

Married, at the residence of the bride's father, by James W. Brown, J. P., on Saturday, Nov. 15th, 1884, J. C. Herring, of Wichita, Kansas, and Miss Nettie Isabella Bartlett, of Kalamazoo, in Erie township.

Mr. J. H. Black, of the Wichita wholesale grocery company, arrived home yesterday from the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and is ready for a big winter's business. He missed the election in Wichita, but got about as much of the Arkansas article as he could well stomach.

Capt. Samuel B. Adams, of Decatur, who commanded the company in which Mr. George W. Stearns served during the war, is making his old friend and this valley a visit. Capt. Adams says that Decatur is a cold country and he is very favorably impressed with the Happy valley.

J. G. S.—Rev. James S. Saxby, and not Sakley, was the man who preached the first sermon in Wichita. He lived near near Sakley's Springs was named for him. He was a Baptist. Resp.

El Dorado, Kan., Nov. 15.

George Kaiser, Louis Dittman, Christ Kimmeler and others, who have been on a grand hunt for a week past, returned home last evening. They had a splendid time and bagged a big haul of game. When they heard of the result of the election they immediately pitched their tents and painted the camp red.

The other day a boot-black appeared on the street with a Blaine cap and in his bare feet. One of his Democratic friends jokingly remarked that he supposed he had let his shoes on the election. The other replied that the election of Cleveland had made times so very tough that he could not afford to wear shoes.

There has been some important changes made in the office of register of deeds. The partition between the first and second rooms has been taken out and now the office extends the entire length of the building making a fine commodious office. An elegant new Jewell store embellishes the apartment.

Rev. Harper, who went to Topeka to attend the state Baptist association, arrived home Monday morning. The churches of that city were given up to the ministers of the association on Sunday evening. Mr. Harper's congregation, in one of the largest churches of the city, numbered fully one thousand listeners.

The cracker factory was compelled to shut down during one day last week in order to repair some machinery, and they are so pushed to their full capacity to keep up with orders that before they could start up they were entirely out of stock. This circumstance tells its own story, and argues well for the cracker factory investment.

Mr. F. Bridgman, who has just recently come to our city from Logan county, Illinois, has purchased a fine state farm, six miles east of town. He is building a new house on the place, which will be occupied as soon as completed by himself and family. In the meantime they are living in the city, the family having already arrived in their newly adopted state.

Mr. George L. McNeal received a telegram Sunday evening conveying the intelligence of the death of his mother. Mrs. McNeal formerly resided in this city, but of late has been living in Frankfort, Indiana. She had a large circle of friends here who will sincerely regret her death. Two sons and a daughter still reside here. George, Sallie and Willie, who in the loss of their dear mother will have the sympathy of many.

A deaf and dumb man from Kiowa had a long interview with Justice Thomas yesterday, by means of a little slate which he carried. He says he has a wife and three children, all of whom are deaf and dumb. He was an Oklahoma boomer and said the military forced him out. He wanted Justice Thomas' opinion as to the time these lands would be open to settlement. He was a very fluent writer and had a fair common school education.

D. W. McCalla, a stock man of Cheyenne, having heard a great deal of the rapid growth and the substantial nature of Wichita, came over to this city some three weeks ago to make a real estate investment. He looked carefully over the entire place, compared prices and possibilities, and selected Perry's addition as offering the best inducements according to his judgment for capital, and he backed his opinion by purchasing four acres of that handsome, splendidly located and cheap property.

C. C. Israel, of Israel Bros., and H. L. Pierce left for Whitehall, Ill., yesterday to visit friends and relatives for a week or two.

Messrs. J. S. and Taylor Whitelaw and Chas. Collett, cattle men of Dodge City, stopped over here yesterday on their way east.

W. B. Keeler, the agent of the Union ticket office, returned from Topeka yesterday morning, apparently in the best of humor.

J. M. Ireland, who has been playing the host for a party of Kentuckians at Winfield, came to this city yesterday in the company.

A. S. Carnahan and F. Myers, of the smoky city of Pa., are on a visit to Kansas and are at present sizing up the leading city of the Arkansas valley.

J. P. Massy, an old resident of our city, and who travels for Smith, Simmons &amp; Penbody, of Toledo, Ohio, a large boot and shoe manufactory, called yesterday. Mr. Massy offers special inducements on his goods—by their coming from the manufactory direct saves a good margin on the same goods offered and sold by jobbers, a fact which no doubt our merchants catch on to.

SOCIAL HOP.

Mrs. Col. Stewart will entertain a select number of guests at a social dance at the residence of Col. Stewart, on North Main street, next Friday night. Judging from the preparations being made, together with the number and social status of the invited guests, it will be a brilliant affair.

THE MARKETS.

The receipts of grain and live stock yesterday were very light. Wheat advanced 1c per bushel. Corn and oats unchanged. Hogs declined 1c per hundred; the receipts were 50 head; the demand is good at the reduced rates. The supply of butter surpasses the demand, and some of the stores have dropped 5c per pound. All other farm produce remain unchanged.

LANE VS. TANGNEY.

It seems the current troubles between T. M. Lane and J. D. Tangney, which have entertained the justices' courts all summer, are not yet ended. Mr. Lane brought suit against Tangney yesterday in Justice Thomas' court for $140.00 dollars for the use of certain rooms and articles of furniture. Tangney made no defense any more than to call Lane some hard names.

COMMERCIAL SCHOOL.

A reporter visited the commercial evening school conducted by that accomplished penman and teacher, Mr. D. S. Pence, last night and spent a short time watching the system of instruction and the operations of the pupils.

The school is held over Woodman's bank, on Main street, in three very pleasant rooms furnished with suitable tables for the accommodation of about forty scholars.

There were twenty-three pupils present, besides a few visitors. They have already made wonderful progress in the beautiful and their preliminary training is so thorough that their future proficiency is a foregone conclusion. Mr. Pence is not only an expert penman, but is up to the latest style in imparting the knowledge he possesses.

A winter's course of training in this school will qualify any one of good ordinary education to fill a business position with credit. An easy, graceful style of writing may be acquired in a course of two or three months.

MORE POPULATION.

Dr. Whitlock visited the Eagle at 12:30 last night with his face all wreathed in smiles and his hand was a box of fine Havana. He said it is a boy. The Eagle screams all hall to the youthful "pill slinger."

POLICE COURT.

J. J. Connors and W. B. Coats were arraigned in the police court yesterday on the charge of plain drunk. The usual penalty was assessed but the boys were financially embarrassed, therefore they had to go back to the hole again for a short time. J. A. Reison was fined $10 and costs for carrying concealed weapons and $30 and costs for indecent exposure in a public place.

G. A. R.

H. H. GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC, COLUMBUS, Kan., Nov. 1, 1884. Post Commander Garfield Post, No. 25, Wichita, Kan.

DEAR COMRADE—I am directed by the department commander to inform you that a meeting of the assistant inspectors of the southwestern part of the department will be held with your Post at Wichita on Monday the 24th day of November.

This meeting is held for conference and instruction and will be attended by the department commander and members of his staff. I am very respectfully

Yours in T. C. &amp; L. GEO. S. HAMPTON, Dept. Com'd'r.

In pursuance of the foregoing order there will be a special meeting of the Garfield Post No. 25, on Monday evening Nov. 24, 1884. All comrades are urged to be present and the quartermasters will be present to receive dues. By order of the post commander.

JOHN A. WALLACE, Adjutant.

TOO SOON.

The delightful autumn season of soft days and a mellow sunshine that bathed the fading prairies and tinted foliage with a subdued atmosphere of glory, was veiled in threatening shadows night before last, and the dawning light of yesterday morning revealed our city and valley enshrouded with winter's first offering, whose fleecy whiteness was only surpassed by its cheerlessness.

Undoubtedly it came, finding many leaves still clinging to the harder trees and finding us all unprepared. Surely this cannot be winter. Some northern body's cloud, heavily burdened with these frosty crystals, must have fell in with some adverse current of old boreas and strayed away down here to our beautiful land of sunshine and dropped its unwelcome chilly load. It is yet forty days till the end of the year and our tender plants were to care for, our homes to be made more warm and secure, and much of outdoor work to be done, and nobody wanted to see the first snow on the 17th day of November.

THE NAID QUEEN.

Political matters have been so warm that we had neglected to mention the fact that Walter C. Clark has in course of preparation one of the finest treatises in the way of an entertainment ever offered the people. It is in the nature of an oratorio, or something of that order, for which he has for some weeks been training and drilling nearly two hundred voices. It is a fairy allegory, interspersed with spectacular effects, magnificent decorations, wonderful mechanical contrivances, extraordinary beauty and enchanting effects. Mr. Clark has a full car load of scenery and apparatuses used in the presentation of the allegory. The first presentation will occur some time next week. It was only the other day that they were reading an account or description of the same thing which had been given in St. Paul, and the paper was simply extravagant in its praises. In fact we have seen twenty or thirty press notices of this new and wonderful performance, which consists of four acts and fourteen scenes, and every word of which is sung.

A GALA GATHERING.

One of the largest and most enjoyable social events of the season, so far, was the farewell reception at the residence of Mrs. C. H. Abbott, corner of Lawrence avenue and Pine street, night before last, in honor of Miss Hattie Simpson, a charming young belle of Troy, N. Y., who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Abbott, in this city, during the summer and fall.

The entertainment consisted of social intercourse, games, vocal and instrumental music, etc. The Steinway Glee Club rendered a large number of selections in a manner that won the admiration of all present. A list of those who participated is before us, and constitutes the Corinthian capital of our society.

Messrs. Fanny Jackson, Ada Guthrie, Hattie Weaver, Laura Eggleston, Lula Grainger, Laura Cossad, Stella Woodard, Lolo Bates, Laura Woodcock, Grace Whitehorn, Belle Wells, Edith Titsworth and Miss McCullough. The gentlemen present were: Mr. Robert Holliday, F. Guthrie, E. J. Weaver, S. F. Woodard, James Mead, H. P. Chatfield, Vandervier H. West, F. W. Sweet, Bertram A. Shuman, J. B. Stone, L. Jackson and the Glee club company consisting of Messrs. Hamilton, Collins, Alden, Hall and Northrup. A most enjoyable evening was spent by all while regrets were freely expressed on every hand at the departure of the young lady in whose honor it was given. Miss Simpson left last evening on the 3 o'clock train for her home in Troy, N. Y. The young lady expressed many sincere regrets at parting with so many warm friends.
